

Avern Gumbs awarded Clark Atlanta University Scholarship!

The ATA was pleased to hold a press conference on Tuesday, 7 March, 2013 to announce that Avern Gumbs will be awarded a full academic scholarship at Clark Atlanta University.

Coach Autumn Williams of Clark Atlanta University of Georgia, wrote, "On behalf of Clark Atlanta University, the athletic department and the women's tennis team, we are elated that Avern Gumbs has chosen Clark Atlanta University as her preferred University to matriculate and also participate as a student-athlete. She has shown herself to be a very studious and hardworking individual, both in academics and athletics.... I am more than confident that Avern will fit into the mold that is Clark Atlanta University with grace, excitement and determination...."

Avern expressed her overwhelming gratitude to God, Michelle Lake, Chris Wade, Marvin Hazell, ATA Coaches and Staff, Fitness Trainers, Ministry of Education, Department of Education, ALHCS, family, church family, sponsors and friends. She also extended extra special thanks to Clark Atlanta University for their generosity.

CONGRATS TO NZINGHA BANKS

The Anguilla Tennis Academy congratulates Nzingha Banks for achieving a 4.0 GPA during the Spring 2013 semester. After her Freshman Year at Washburn University in Topeka, KS, Nzingha has finished strong with a cumulative GPA of 3.88. She is the ATA's first female recipient of a full-ride scholarship. Nzingha and her young tennis teammates finished their first tennis season with promise.

Mitch Lake, Founder and CEO of the ATA stated, "Congratulations Nzingha on an outstanding first year at University. You are an exceptional ambassador for the Anguilla Tennis Academy and the Washburn University Lady Blues Tennis Netters. We are all proud of you."

Nzingha is currently training at T Bar M Racquet club in Dallas, Texas under the supervision of Coach Chris Wade and his team. Avern Gumbs, our newest full-ride recipient, will join her this summer!
